THE ROSEMOND REPORT

Dear Parents,

Brrr! Please be sure your child/children have dressed for our more winter-like weather. Without rain present, we still like to go outside if at all possible! I'm sure a uniform sweatshirt would be a great gift idea. By the way, Funday Monday will resume beginning on Monday (11/21) with regular spirit-wear allowed on top! We will continue to wish to Cool the School, but want to stay warm!

F.Y.I. Tomorrow (11/15) at some time we will be practicing a schoolwide lockdown. I'm only saying this ahead so that if your child is someone who would prefer to know it's coming, you can talk to them ahead of time about how we need to practice these types of things so that we all would know what to do. I will announce a lockdown and then the teachers will instruct what to do specifically for their rooms and close and lock their classroom doors. Just remind your child/children of the importance of quiet listening for any directions. Our outside doors all around the building will be checked as a formality, although they should be found to be locked, and no one will be admitted into school or allowed to leave during the short time that this will take. I just thought you should know that this drill will occur.

There's a PTO General Meeting on Thursday evening (11/17) at 7:00, in the Undercroft. I hope you'll be able to attend. It's good to have a chance to visit and hear together what's being planned.

Our report cards are being readied now to be sent home for you to see this Friday (11/18). The younger grades are including an extra sheet of paper in the report card envelope explaining the purpose of the standards-based report card. This form of report card is something that our archdiocesan schools are asked to use. Grades 4-8 follow a traditional report card format and use letter grades A-F. I ask that when reviewing your child's grade card, that you do so together, highlighting strengths and "opportunities" for growth. I'm sure there's something positive to express for all.

Yours in Christ,

Marianne Rosemond
