THE ROSEMOND REPORT

Dear Parents,

It's more than beginning to look and feel a lot like Christmas here! Santa's Shop is open, the winds are even blowing some snow our way today, and glitter is stuck to things everywhere! (LOL)

Behind this crazy school scene, Grades 3-8 are quietly attending an Advent Penance Service in church this morning. We are all preparing our hearts as we share and experience JOY, our Advent theme of this week.

May you each experience plenty of joy as you celebrate Christmas with your family and friends during these weeks of Christmas! I'll look forward to seeing all of you in the New Year!

Merry Christmas,
Marianne Rosemond

◆ CENTRAL PARISH OFFICE PROJECT

Parish staff is joining together to more efficiently serve parishioners of all 5 parishes. For optimal efficiency, we need to unify our parish staff in one Central Parish Office. This carefully-planned renovation is an investment in our future together. The short-term and long-term return on this investment will be a trim, specialized staff that more appropriately covers the needs of our unified parish, including many areas that have been underserved by understaffed parishes in recent years and decades. Please prayerfully consider investing in the future of our unified parish by donating to the Central Parish Office project. See the website below for giving online. Thank you,
