THE ROSEMOND REPORT

Dear Parents,

Happy Veteran's Day! I'm sure all of us know someone who served in the military. A veteran close to me is my Dad. Luckily, he served during peace time. He was too young for the Korean War and too old for Vietnam. (He's fond of saying he just had to "fight the food line" while serving at Fort Knox.) I do know many of his stories from his basic training days. May all of our men and women who served, and those who are currently serving, feel our support. Each are wonderful examples of sacrifice for us all.

Our School Book Fair is happening all week in our school library! Students (and their families) may enjoy shopping at various times. Classes will all visit once this week during the regular school day, but it is also open some extra hours for your shopping convenience. It is open on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday until 3:30 and on Wednesday until 7:30 p.m.! Without bookstores close by, you may wish to utilize the Book Fair for some holiday gifts ahead too. Books are always a good idea!

Yours in Christ,

Marianne Rosemond

Not a clean car could be seen, snow was piled in heaps.
All the people were hustling to get shopping done,
Wanting gifts for family and friends to be fun.

It was right in front of their eyes, no need for a rift.
Picking up some gift certificates that everyone likes,
Nothing's better than car washes from Mike's!
