THE ROSEMOND REPORT

Dear Parents,

This is a busy week! Sometimes, even more seems to happen during shorter ones.

All classes are finishing i-Ready Testing in Reading and Math, with some who have been out this week. We will be ready to send home your child's/children's scores soon. These scores help give us a baseline for the year. We test again in January and May. If your child falls below their predicted benchmark levels for their grade in either, we will be in touch to offer help. Most do very well, and I know improvements are made during each year. "Summer lag" for some may cause their initial scores to be lower, but overall, our students work hard and do very well. There are goals to meet, and I'm confident they will be successful.

Our Picture Day is tomorrow. Students are mostly out of uniform at this time, but all are welcome to wear what they prefer for their picture. It will be the picture used in our school yearbook, so please help your children choose wisely.

I'm sure you know that our Jag-A-Thon is on Friday! If you're not already volunteering, please do consider coming and walking or helping in some other way. We do attend mass first on Friday morning, and all should wear their Class Shirts. The students will walk together by class, and when they return, they'll have a cool treat and relax while watching others take part in 50-yard dashes. We will return to the building by 11:30 to allow cars to enter the parking lot. If you're volunteering, you may take your child home (or out to lunch) with you. Please let the homeroom teacher(s) know you're doing so, and if you can send word ahead of time about your plans, it would be appreciated.

Next Tuesday (9/23), we will have two assemblies from ReportBullying.com. The speaker (Jim Jordan) has years of experience, is coming to us from the Niagara Falls area, and speaks nationally to many Intermediate-aged groups on bullying and, of equal importance, on being a good bystander. Another pertinent topic covered is exclusion and gossiping. I've prearranged two assemblies. Grades 3-5 will assemble from 8:50-9:35, and Grades 6-8 will assemble from 9:45-10:40. If you are home and would like to attend, you are welcome to join us. He will be speaking in the Undercroft that morning.

Have a great week!

Yours in Christ, Marianne Rosemond

Room Parent & Class Party Money!

Thank you to everyone who volunteered to be a Room Parent. If you were not selected this year, we hope you will volunteer next year for a turn, as well as helping this year's Room Parents to make it a fun year for your child's grade!

There is one room parent for each homeroom and a grade level treasurer. For larger parties and activities room parents can create sign-ups for extra volunteers or items needed. There is a committee of two parents per homeroom and a grade level treasurer for 8th grade, who can work together to plan all the traditional 8th grade activities.

The treasurer will collect class party money ($10 per student) & teacher Christmas gift money (optional). Money collected must be cash (or Venmo if your Room Parents are comfortable using it). NO checks can be accepted. Please watch for an email from your Room Parents with more details.
