THE ROSEMOND REPORT

Dear Parents,

As you know, Veterans Day is tomorrow. All students are permitted to wear patriotic colors, should they wish to do so. We have a couple of Veterans on staff and many of us have had relatives in the military. Thank you to all who provide or have provided service for our country!

Our First Trimester ends this Friday (11/14). The PTO has plans to help us celebrate with a rolling cart of treats! Be sure to log in to Option C to check for any missing work to be handed in ASAP. Friday is also World Diabetes Day. For a donation, students may wear blue to show awareness and help to find a cure. I know it means a great deal especially for two of our students for us to show our support.

All students will have a chance to shop at the Book Fair with their class when visiting the library this week. The Book Fair is open today, Tuesday, and Thursday during our school times and it's open much longer on Wednesday, when it will be available until 7:30 PM! Proceeds will help us to keep up to date books in our library. (Books make great gifts!)

Thanks to all who have sent in items for our food pantries. I know that they'll be glad for your donations.

Yours in Christ,

Marianne Rosemond

ST. ANTONINUS NEWS

♦ REPORTING AN ABSENCE

We are starting a new procedure to report your child's absence , early dismissal, or tardies. You may either call the main school phone line and leave your information or use our new email: absent@saintantoninus.org Instead of emailing Mrs. Steinbeck for attendance, please use this new email instead. Also email your child's teacher to make them aware and to request homework if needed.

♦ PROJECT REINDEER 2025

Help us bring a little Christmas cheer to the students at St. Francis of Seraph School! St. Antoninus Lady Jags Club is excited to announce our annual Project Reindeer! St. Antoninus school families are encouraged to sign up for a student at St. Francis school and purchase enough small items to fill a shoe box full of cheer for this child (small toys, crafts and games, personal hygiene items, winter gloves and hats or whatever you think a child that age may like and need.) They have requested no cash, gift cards, food/candy or projectile toys (like toy guns) be added to the boxes. Please deliver the unwrapped package secured with rubber bands and labeled with the grade/ gender to school no later than Wednesday, November 26th.
