ST. ANTONINUS SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

THE ROSEMOND REPORT

Dear Parents,

Our weather should be much nicer this week! We will be able to have more regular hours and fewer interruptions, at least until perhaps our Valentine's Day activities this Friday! An elementary school always has some fun happening! Remember that if your child is distributing valentines, please include everyone. Also, you'll see an attachment about wearing red on Friday for a donation. A former St. Antoninus Teacher, Leigh Currin, reached out to see if we would collect for the American Heart Association. She was nominated for their Woman of Impact campaign. It means a lot to her because her daughter Gemma was born with a congenital heart condition. Thanks in advance.

By now your child/children may have mentioned that our school librarian, Holley Gruenwald, is taking another job. She gave me her notice some weeks back and with the snow, her time was even cut shorter! She did a terrific job, but she had an opportunity she couldn't refuse. As a result, beginning tomorrow, Mrs. Michelle Kramer and Mrs. Abbie Erdman will be filling in days in the library during the month of February (Mondays-Wednesdays, the usual library days). Why just February? Because Mrs. Stephanie Duebber will be our next regular librarian, but she had already committed to sub for Mr. Elder, who is currently out on paternity leave until the last week of this month. All are very capable and happy to help us, and I feel most fortunate to have them work with our students.

Have a great week!

Yours in Christ,

Marianne Rosemond
