THE ROSEMOND REPORT

Dear Parents,

Thanks for your support of the American Heart Association last week. Together we raised $850.00! Leigh Currin came and was very touched by the amount and will forward it to the organization for us. I'm sure the children enjoyed being in red too!

Each homeroom received a Kings Cake today to celebrate Mardi Gras in their homerooms. Thanks to our PTO for this treat!

Tomorrow is Ash Wednesday and the start of Lent. We will attend mass and receive ashes. Our students will be talking about adding extra prayer, service, and almsgiving. Perhaps there's a project you need help with or could do as a family during these next 40 days. Many also use this Lenten time to sacrifice or give up things and contribute more to charities.

Our St. Vincent DePaul Pantry has asked us to collect some condiments. It's a real treat for their "shoppers" to select these extra things we take for granted. Examples of such things include jellies, jams, ketchup, mustard, mayo, pickles, tarter sauce, hot sauce, barbeque sauce, and dressings. Please send in some of these items, if possible, and we will get them to the pantry ASAP. Thanks in advance.

Have a great week!

Yours in Christ,

Marianne Rosemond
