THE ROSEMOND REPORT

Dear Parents,

Today and tomorrow, we are welcoming and screening our potential Kindergarteners. It's wonderful to see their enthusiasm and awe of our big school when they visit. They will soon be known as the class of 2035!

We are also readying behind the scenes for Grandparents' Day on Friday. This is always a large group, and we try different plans each year to better "move the crowd". Please read over the instructions with where to have your family members go and at what time. If they do choose to shorten their visit, we understand that as well. All students who don't leave with Grandparents will be dismissed at noon. Please recall that you'll need to come then for the pick-up that day (no buses). I imagine all the local restaurants will be very busy that day.

Second Graders are finalizing practices for their First Communion this Sunday. I'm sure all are very excited! Their special mass will be at 2:00. May they always feel this close to Jesus.

Yours in Christ,

Marianne Rosemond

◆ GRANDPARENTS DAY

Grandparents Day will be held on Friday April 24th. If grandparents are unavailable, please feel free to bring a special guest. Mass for all students and grandparents will be held in church at 9:00. If your youngest student is in grades 6-8, please have your grandparents meet in the youngest grandchild's classroom at 8:00. They will proceed to have donuts and coffee in the undercroft before mass. After 9:00 mass they are welcome to tour the school and take their grandchildren home if they wish. If your youngest student is in grades 1-5, please have your grandparents meet in the youngest grandchild's classroom at 8:30. They will proceed directly to 9:00 mass. After mass they are welcome to enjoy donuts and coffee in the undercroft and tour the school. They can take their grandchildren home after if they wish. If your youngest student is a kindergartener, please have your grandparents meet in the kindergarten classroom at 8:30. They will proceed directly to 9:00 mass. After mass they are welcome to enjoy donuts and coffee in the cafeteria and tour the school. They can take their grandchildren home after if they wish. A WORD OF ADVICE – this is a somewhat chaotic morning and will be our biggest Grandparent's Day celebration yet! Encourage your grandparents to take their time after mass exploring the school. We will be sure to save treats and coffee in the undercroft for whatever time they arrive.
