THE ROSEMOND REPORT

Dear Parents,

Please be sure to read the separate letter coming in a One Call today, that Fr. Matt has written, describing a strategic planning process that will be happening during the upcoming months of this school year. It's a lengthy process, but one that we hope will be beneficial for all.

We have just three more weeks until the end of our First Trimester. As a former teacher, I'm sure this means that final tests, projects, and other assignments will be given soon. Help your child/children to stay organized, review, and plan ahead accordingly. One way to start the day in a better frame of mind is to utilize some extra minutes each day by arriving early whenever possible. We open our doors 20 minutes ahead of our actual start time. It's always a great idea to clean out the backpack at home too! School supplies may need to be replenished. I hope these ideas are helpful.

Have a great week!

Yours in Christ,
Marianne Rosemond
