THE ROSEMOND REPORT

Dear Parents,

Veteran's Day is this Wednesday (11/11) and this national holiday honors all who have served in the United States Armed Forces, whether in wartime or peacetime. Please extend our thanks to anyone in your family who is serving or who has served. My Dad always says he only fought the "battle of Fort Knox" kiddingly, but I know he enjoys being remembered for his service. I'm sure your relatives/friends will too.

A reminder too that this Wednesday evening at 7:00 is our next PTO Meeting. It's a time when we can hear about upcoming school events and catch up with what's happening. I hope you'll be able to attend.

As I mentioned last week, this Friday marks the end of the First Trimester! We will be celebrating with some treats from our PTO.

All students may come out of uniform and wear blue on Monday (11/16) with a donation of $1.00 (or more). Blue is the designated color chosen for World Diabetes Day. Nationally, it's on Saturday (11/14), but we will celebrate our two students and the wish to end T1D, on Monday. Thanks in advance. I'm sure they'll be happy to see the visual support of many wearing blue.

Yours in Christ,

Marianne Rosemond
